AMENDED COMPLAINT

COMES NOW, RYAN PFLIPSEN, by and through the undersigned counsel, and files this, her Complaint against Defendants KUYRENDALL INVESTMENTS, LP, d/b/a COUNTRY VILLAGE PLAZA, pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq. (“ADA”) and the ADA’s Accessibility Guidelines, 28 C.F.R. Part 36 (“ADAAG”). In support thereof, Plaintiff respectfully shows this Court as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. This Court has original jurisdiction over the action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343 for Plaintiff’s claims pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq., based upon Defendants’ failure to remove physical barriers to access and violations of Title III of the ADA.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff RYAN PFLIPSEN (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) is, and has been at all times relevant to the instant matter, a natural person residing in San Antonio, Texas

(Bexar County).

3. Plaintiff is disabled as defined by the ADA.

4. Plaintiff is required to traverse in a wheelchair and is substantially limited in performing one or more major life activities, including but not limited to: walking, standing, grabbing, grasping and/or pinching.

5. Plaintiff uses a wheelchair for mobility purposes.

6. Plaintiff is also an independent advocate of the rights of similarly situated disabled persons and is a “tester” for the purpose of asserting her civil rights, monitoring, ensuring, and determining whether places of public accommodation are in compliance with the ADA. Her motivation to return to a location, in part, stems from a desire to utilize ADA litigation to make Plaintiff’s community more accessible for Plaintiff and others, and pledges to do whatever is necessary to create the requisite standing to confer jurisdiction upon this Court so an injunction can be issued correcting the numerous ADA violations on this Property, including returning to the Property as soon as it is accessible (“Advocacy Purposes”).”

7. Defendant KUYRENDALL INVESTMENTS, LP d/b/a COUNTRY VILLAGE PLAZA, (hereinafter “Country Village Plaza”) is a for profit limited partnership that transacts business in the state of Texas and within this judicial district.

8. COUNTRY VILLAGE PLAZA may be properly served with process through its registered agent, to wit: Donald Kuyrendall, 12040 Colwick, San Antonio, Texas 75216.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

9. On or about December 3, 2022, Plaintiff was a customer at “JK’s Chicago Hot Dogs” a business located at 15711 San Pedro Avenue, Hill Country Village, Texas 78232, referenced herein as the “JK’s Chicago Hot Dogs.”

10. JK’s Chicago Hot Dogs is the lessee or sub-lessee of the real property and improvements that are the subject of this action.

11. Country Village Plaza is the owner or co-owner of the real property and improvements that the JK’s Chicago Hot Dogs is situated upon and that is the subject of this action, referenced herein as the “Property.”

12. Plaintiff lives approximately 4 miles from the JK’s Chicago Hot Dogs and Property.

13. Plaintiff’s access to the business(es) located at 15711 San Pedro Avenue 15711 San Pedro Avenue, San Antonio, Texas 78232, Bexar County Property Identification number 282789 (“the Property”), and/or full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, foods, drinks, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations offered therein were denied and/or limited because of her disabilities, and he will be denied and/or limited in the future unless and until Defendant is compelled to remove the physical barriers to access and correct the ADA violations that exist at the JK’s Chicago Hot Dogs and Property, including those set forth in this Complaint.

14. Plaintiff has visited the Property at least once before as a customer and advocate for the disabled. Plaintiff intends on revisiting the Property within six months after the barriers to access detailed in this Complaint are removed and the Property is accessible again. The purpose of the revisit is to be a return customer, to determine if and when the Property are made accessible and to maintain standing for this lawsuit for Advocacy Purposes.

15. Plaintiff intends to revisit the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property to purchase goods and/or services.

16. Plaintiff travelled to the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property as a customer and as an independent advocate for the disabled, encountered or were made aware of the barriers to access at the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property that are detailed in this Complaint, engaged those barriers, suffered legal harm and legal injury, and will continue to suffer such harm and injury as a result of the illegal barriers to access present at the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property.

COUNT I
VIOLATIONS OF THE ADA AND ADAAG

17. On July 26, 1990, Congress enacted the Americans with Disabilities Act 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et seq.

18. Congress found, among other things, that:

- (i) some 43,000,000 Americans have one or more physical or mental disabilities, and this number is increasing as the population as a whole is growing older;
- (ii) historically, society has tended to isolate and segregate individuals with disabilities, and, despite some improvements, such forms of discrimination against individuals with disabilities continue to be a serious and pervasive social problem;
- (iii) discrimination against individuals with disabilities persists in such critical areas as employment, housing public accommodations, education, transportation, communication, recreation, institutionalization, health services, voting, and access to public services;

- (iv) individuals with disabilities continually encounter various forms of discrimination, including outright intentional exclusion, the discriminatory effects of architectural, transportation, and communication barriers, overprotective rules and policies, failure to make modifications to existing facilities and practices, exclusionary qualification standards and criteria, segregation, and relegation to lesser service, programs, activities, benefits, jobs, or other opportunities; and
- (v) the continuing existence of unfair and unnecessary discrimination and prejudice denies people with disabilities the opportunity to compete on an equal basis and to pursue those opportunities for which our free society is justifiably famous, and costs the United States billions of dollars in unnecessary expenses resulting from dependency and non-productivity.

42 U.S.C. § 12101(a)(1) - (3), (5) and (9).

- 19. Congress explicitly stated that the purpose of the ADA was to:
 - (i) provide a clear and comprehensive national mandate for the elimination of discrimination against individuals with disabilities;
 - (ii) provide a clear, strong, consistent, enforceable standards addressing discrimination against individuals with disabilities; and

* * * * *

- (iv) invoke the sweep of congressional authority, including the power to enforce the fourteenth amendment and to regulate commerce, in order to address the major areas of discrimination faced day-to-day by people with disabilities.

42 U.S.C. § 12101(b)(1)(2) and (4).

20. The congressional legislation provided places of public accommodation one and a half years from the enactment of the ADA to implement its requirements.

21. The effective date of Title III of the ADA was January 26, 1992 (or January 26, 1993 if a defendant has 10 or fewer employees and gross receipts of $500,000 or less). 42 U.S.C. § 12181; 28 C.F.R. § 36.508(a).

22. The JK's Chicago Hot Dogs is a public accommodation and service establishment.

23. The Property is a public accommodation and service establishment.

24. Pursuant to the mandates of 42 U.S.C. § 12134(a), on July 26, 1991, the Department of Justice and Office of Attorney General promulgated federal regulations to implement the requirements of the ADA. 28 C.F.R. Part 36.

25. Public accommodations were required to conform to these regulations by January 26, 1992 (or by January 26, 1993 if a defendant has 10 or fewer employees and gross receipts of $500,000 or less). 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq.; 28 C.F.R. § 36.508(a).

26. The JK's Chicago Hot Dogs must be, but is not, in compliance with the ADA and ADAAG.

27. The Property must be, but is not, in compliance with the ADA and ADAAG.

28. Plaintiff has attempted to, and has to the extent possible, accessed the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and the Property in her capacity as a customer of the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property and as an independent advocate for the disabled, but could not fully do so because of her disabilities resulting from the physical barriers to access, dangerous conditions and ADA violations that exist at the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property that preclude and/or limit her access to the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property and/or the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations offered therein, including those barriers, conditions and ADA violations more specifically set forth in this Complaint.

29. Plaintiff intends to visit the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property again in the very near future as a customer in order to utilize all of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations commonly offered at the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property and as an independent advocate for the disabled, but will be unable to fully do so because of her disability and the physical barriers to access, dangerous conditions and ADA violations that exist at the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property that preclude and/or limit her access to the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property and/or the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations offered therein, including those barriers, conditions and ADA violations more specifically set forth in this Complaint.

30. Defendants have discriminated against Plaintiff (and others with disabilities) by denying her access to, and full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations of the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property, as prohibited by, and by failing to remove architectural barriers as required by, 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv).

31. Defendants will continue to discriminate against Plaintiff and others with disabilities unless and until Defendants are compelled to remove all physical barriers that exist at the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property, including those specifically set forth herein, and make the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property accessible to and usable by Plaintiff and other persons with disabilities.

32. A specific list of unlawful physical barriers, dangerous conditions and ADA violations which Plaintiff experienced and/or observed that precluded and/or limited Plaintiff's access to the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property and the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and accommodations of the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property include, but are not limited to:

(a) ACCESSIBLE ELEMENTS:

- (i) At Unit 15741, the front door has improper hardware in violation of section 309.4 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. This violation would make it difficult for Plaintiff to access the units of the Property.
- (ii) Across the vehicular way from Gold's Gym, an accessible parking space is not located on the shortest distance to the accessible route leading to the accessible entrances in violation of section 208.3.1 of the 2010 ADAAG Standards. This violation would make it difficult for Plaintiff to access the units of the Property.
- (iii) Adjacent to Gold's Gym, the access aisle to the accessible parking space is not level due to the presence of an accessible ramp in the access aisle in violation of section 502.4 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. This violation would make it dangerous and difficult for Plaintiff to exit and enter their vehicle while parked at the Property.
- (iv) Adjacent to Gold's Gym, the accessible curb ramp is improperly protruding into the access aisle of the accessible parking space in violation of section 406.5 of the 2010 ADAAG Standards. This violation would make it difficult and dangerous for Plaintiff to exit/enter their vehicle.

- (xi) Near Juice Box Headquarters, the Property has an accessible ramp leading from the accessible parking space to the accessible entrances with a slope exceeding 1:12 in violation of section 405.2 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. This violation would make it dangerous and difficult for Plaintiff to access the units of the Property.
- (xii) Near Juice Box Headquarters, there is an excessive vertical rise at the base of the accessible ramp in violation of Section 303.2 and 405.4 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. This violation would make it dangerous and difficult for Plaintiff to access public features of the Property.
- (xiii) Near Juice Box Headquarters, the accessible parking space is missing a proper identification sign in violation of section 502.6 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. This violation would make it difficult for Plaintiff to locate an accessible parking space.

- (xiv) Near Juice Box Headquarters, the accessible ramp side flares have a slope in excess of 1:10 in violation of section 406.3 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. This violation would make it dangerous and difficult for Plaintiff to access the units of the Property.
- (xv) Near Juice Box Headquarters, the ground surfaces at the top of the accessible ramp have vertical rises in excess of $\frac{1}{4}$ (one quarter) inch in height, are not stable or slip resistant, have broken or unstable surfaces or otherwise fail to comply with Section 302 and 303 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. This violation would make it dangerous and difficult for Plaintiff to access the units of the Property.
- (xvi) Adjacent to Unit 15717, the access aisle to the accessible parking space is not level due to the presence of an accessible ramp in the access aisle in violation of section 502.4 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. This violation would make it dangerous and difficult for Plaintiff to exit and enter their vehicle while parked at the Property.
- (xvii) Adjacent to Unit 15717, the accessible curb ramp is improperly protruding into the access aisle of the accessible parking space in violation of section 406.5 of the 2010 ADAAG Standards. This violation would make it difficult and dangerous for Plaintiff to exit/enter their vehicle.
- (xviii) Adjacent to Unit 15717, the identification sign to the accessible parking space is blocked by a flag/sign in violation of section 502.6 of the 2010

ADAAG standards. This violation would make it difficult for Plaintiff to locate an accessible parking space.

(xix) Adjacent to Unit 15717, the Property has an accessible ramp leading from the accessible parking space to the accessible entrances with a slope exceeding 1:12 in violation of section 405.2 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. This violation would make it dangerous and difficult for Plaintiff to access the units of the Property.

(xx) Adjacent to Unit 15717, the accessible ramp side flares have a slope in excess of 1:10 in violation of section 406.3 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. This violation would make it dangerous and difficult for Plaintiff to access the units of the Property.

(xxi) Adjacent to Unit 15737, the access aisle to the accessible parking space is not level due to the presence of an accessible ramp in the access aisle in violation of section 502.4 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. This violation would make it dangerous and difficult for Plaintiff to exit and enter their vehicle while parked at the Property.

(xxii) Adjacent to Unit 15737, the accessible curb ramp is improperly protruding into the access aisle of the accessible parking space in violation of section 406.5 of the 2010 ADAAG Standards. This violation would make it difficult and dangerous for Plaintiff to exit/enter their vehicle.

(xxiii) Adjacent to Unit 15737, the identification sign to the accessible parking space is missing in violation of section 502.6 of the 2010 ADAAG standards.

This violation would make it difficult for Plaintiff to locate an accessible parking space.

(xxiv) Adjacent to Unit 15737, the Property has an accessible ramp leading from the accessible parking space to the accessible entrances with a slope exceeding 1:12 in violation of section 405.2 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. This violation would make it dangerous and difficult for Plaintiff to access the units of the Property.

(xxv) Adjacent to Unit 15737, the accessible ramp side flares have a slope in excess of 1:10 in violation of section 406.3 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. This violation would make it dangerous and difficult for Plaintiff to access the units of the Property.

(xxvi) Adjacent to Unit 15737, the accessible ramp has a vertical rise exceeding $\frac{1}{4}$ inches at the top of the ramp in violation of section 405.4 of the 2010 ADAAG Standards.

(i) Defendant fails to adhere to a policy, practice and procedure to ensure that all facilities are readily accessible to and usable by disabled individuals.

33. The violations enumerated above may not be a complete list of the barriers, conditions or violations encountered by Plaintiff and/or which exist at the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property.

34. Plaintiff requires an inspection of the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property in order to determine all of the discriminatory conditions present at the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property in violation of the ADA.

35. The removal of the physical barriers, dangerous conditions and ADA violations alleged herein is readily achievable and can be accomplished and carried out without significant difficulty or expense. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv); 42 U.S.C. § 12181(9); 28 C.F.R. § 36.304.
36. All of the violations alleged herein are readily achievable to modify to bring the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property into compliance with the ADA.
37. Upon information and good faith belief, the removal of the physical barriers and dangerous conditions present at the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property is readily achievable because the nature and cost of the modifications are relatively low.
38. Upon information and good faith belief, the removal of the physical barriers and dangerous conditions present at the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property is readily achievable because Defendants have the financial resources to make the necessary modifications.
39. Upon information and good faith belief, the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property have been altered since 2010.
40. In instances where the 2010 ADAAG standards do not apply, the 1991 ADAAG standards apply, and all of the alleged violations set forth herein can be modified to comply with the 1991 ADAAG standards.
41. Plaintiff is without adequate remedy at law, is suffering irreparable harm, and reasonably anticipates that she will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless and until Defendants are required to remove the physical barriers, dangerous conditions and ADA violations that exist at the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property, including those alleged herein.

42. Plaintiff's requested relief serves the public interest.
43. The benefit to Plaintiff and the public of the relief outweighs any resulting detriment to Defendants.
44. Plaintiff's counsel is entitled to recover its reasonable attorney's fees and costs of litigation from Defendants pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 12188 and 12205.
45. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12188(a), this Court is provided authority to grant injunctive relief to Plaintiff, including the issuance of an Order directing Defendants to modify the JK's Chicago Hot Dogs and Property to the extent required by the ADA.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays as follows:

- (a) That the Court find COUNTRY VILLAGE PLAZA in violation of the ADA and ADAAG;
- (b) That the Court find JK's Chicago Hot Dogs in violation of the ADA and ADAAG;
- (c) That the Court issue a permanent injunction enjoining Defendants from continuing their discriminatory practices;
- (d) That the Court issue an Order requiring Defendants to (i) remove the physical barriers to access and (ii) alter the subject JK's Chicago Hot Dogs to make it readily accessible to and useable by individuals with disabilities to the extent required by the ADA;

- (e) That the Court award Plaintiff her reasonable attorneys' fees, litigation expenses and costs; and
- (f) That the Court grant such further relief as deemed just and equitable in light of the circumstances.

Dated: March 31, 2023.
